Code of Conduct

Note: Must be signed BEFORE first game each season!

~~ Membership Agreement ~~

As a member in good standing with the Lloydminster Basketball Officials Association (LBOA), I recognize that membership means:

- I am eligible for any and all services and benefits afforded by the Association.
- I have responsibilities and expectations associated with being an CBOC official.
- I am not guaranteed to be assigned a specific number of games, specific level of games, nor particular gender of games.
- I recognize that game assignments are under the authority of the LBOA Executive and Assignor.

My signature on this agreement confirms my acceptance of the following:

- I abide by all the terms outlined in the 'About, Membership, Education, and Assignments' tabs of the lboa.ca website
- I attempt to be active in the affairs of the Association,
- I maintain membership in the ABOA and/or SBOC,
- I pay the annual membership fees to Can Bb, CBOC, Bb AB, ABOA, SBOC (BSI), and LBOA
- I attempt to improve my ability as an official,
- I sign an annual membership agreement.

My signature on this agreement confirms my acceptance of the LBOA Policy Handbook (in development), which states that, as member of the organization, I shall:

- Not make any remarks that would cause the reputation of the LBOA or ABOA/SBOC any damage;
- Put forth my best effort in each game, regardless of the level;
- Always show respect for the rights and privileges of players, coaches, and fans;
- Study and continue to improve my knowledge of the rules for each league that I officiate;
- Be unquestionably impartial and represent myself and the rules of the game as fairly and accurately as possible;
- Represent myself as professionally as possible in physical appearance and conditioning;
- Never miss, or be late to an accepted game; never cancel a game without appropriate advanced notice to Assignor.
- Understand that the use of alcohol and illegal drugs ~ including cannabis ~ is totally unacceptable on game days before the games;
- Never gamble / wager on any games officiated by the LBOA membership;
- Be respectful and supportive of my peers on and off the court whether as an official, spectator, player or coach;
- Accept the fact that I will make mistakes, and that I will do all that I can to prevent this learning process from becoming frustrating, or affecting my performance and professionalism on the court or in the changeroom;
- Do all that I can contribute to the growth of the LBOA through support, encouragement and a positive attitude;
- Respect constructive feedback received from the Executive, Evaluation Team and the Association Observers;
- Work with the Evaluation Team to maintain a mutually accepted rating level;
- Not solicit or accept games from any coach, league, or league representative without LBOA clearance; not accept games from outside LBOA/ABOA/SBOC approved sources that may interfere with my LBOA assignments/commitments.

I agree that my responsibilities as an official are not restricted to officiating games, and that I also have an obligation to the game of basketball, my peers, and to myself, to make every effort to publicly behave in a professional manner.

I understand that any breach of this membership agreement may be cause for disciplinary action by the LBOA. It is also understood that any action will respect 'due process' as outlined in the LBOA Policy Handbook (in development), and will be performed with the same level, respect and dignity that is implied within this agreement. While there is full recognition that officials are human, I accept that because we are paid for our skills, we as officials must do all that we can to ensure undue influences do not diminish the level of professionalism associated with membership in the LBOA.
